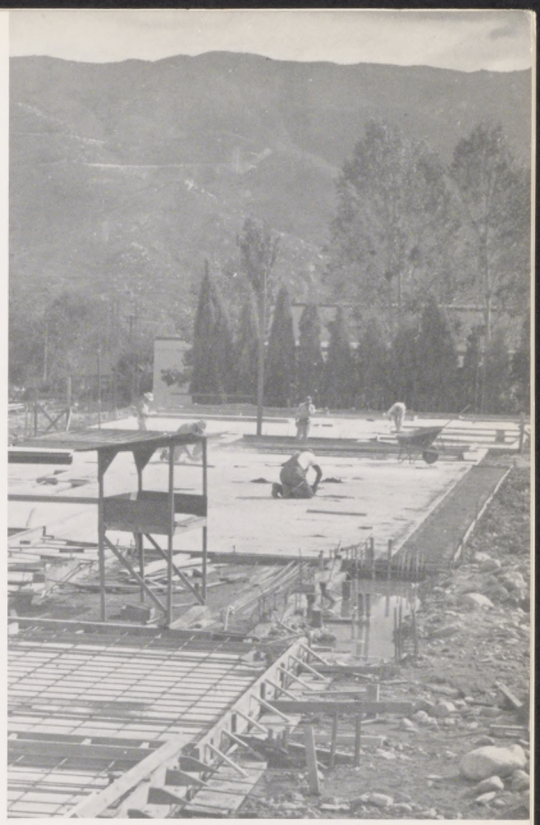
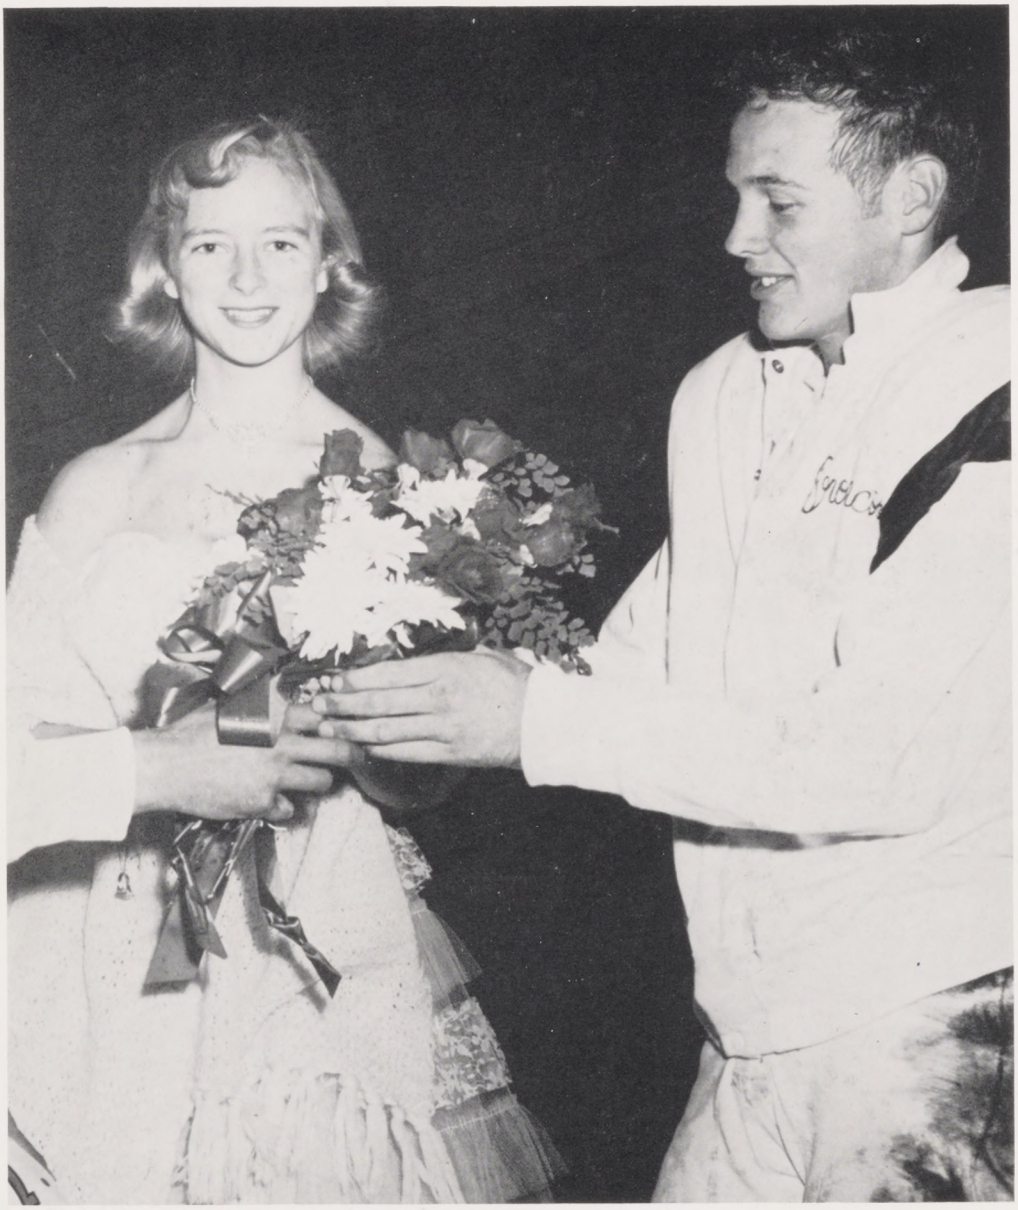
FALL

The autumn leaves spun in a whirl of events, both transitional and traditional. The headlines saw a new "purpose under the heaven" (the Russian satellites in orbit) for B.U.H.S in transition, and for the increased public awareness of educational needs. This step into the Space-age added "Sputnik" to teenage vocabularies without undermining the traditional values, however, as the football heroes and pretty girls demonstrated in that ever recurrent pageantry of the fall season . . .





THE TUMULT AND THE SHOUTING marked the beginning of the football season which saw Janet Covington elected Home Coming Queen. Co-captains of the Varsity, Dave Fisher and Will Lyons (hand on the left) awarded the bouquet at half time in a chill rain that didn't seem to dampen their enthusiasm for the pleasant chore.

Annual Staff

TIME WAITS FOR NO MAN—not even the Annual Staff. Publication of the 1958 San Gorgonian was a constant struggle against complacency and the calendar. Themes, art work, dummies, and deadlines were production problems to be "licked" in bringing out the book.

Checking pictures and copy.

Photography

THE MAN WITH THE CAMERA is a familiar sight around B. U. H. S. These amateur shutterbugs take pictures of everything from their cars to lazy loafers lying on the lawn.

Stampede

THE TIME PROBLEM is a serious one of the Stampede Staff. In two short weeks they go through the cycle of page layouts, writing stories, cutting stencils, and finally the printing. For the latest, it's the Stampede.

WINTER

"A time to mourn, and a time to dance." American satellites in space were cold comfort to the Broncs' winter dreams of a repeat C.I.F. championship in basketball; Burk's boys dropped the big one in the finals. There was still a time to dance at the Spinsters' Ball, and the excitement of the Senior Play to color and make memorable the winter season for both spectators and participants.

"How flash the years along!
Scarce here, yet gone already by
The burden of a (senior's) song."

From Freshman to Senior, the years on parade have had their big moments, but none so memorable as this, the last, the best. From Home-coming to graduation, from Senior play to signing yearbooks, the high spots were something to remember. The Bronc basketballers just missed (after going all the way into the play-offs) repeating last year's championship performance in the C.I.F.; and Carol Buse, as Miss Banning, just missed becoming Queen Scheberazade at the Indio Date Festival; near misses that were really something for the memory book.

Chorus

THE CHORUS, under the direction of Mr. Robert Bostwick, presented programs throughout the year; among them various assemblies and a Christmas program which were well received.

F. H. A.

TIME WAS when a female led a sheltered, inactive life. But times have changed, as these Future Homemakers show. Their activities include barbecues, bazaars and bake sales. They also entered a booth in the Indio Date Festival.

Officers, Standing, L. to R., C. Weed, K. Swinson, J. Taylor, A. Harrison, L. Bridges. Seated, J. Park, R. Taylor, Mrs. Delgado.

Junior and Senior members of Girls' League.

Girls' League

BUSY IS THE WORD for the Girls' League. Besides the concessions and the Spinsters' Dance, they also sent four girls to the Girls' League convention in Tucson, Arizona.

Popularity King, David Bischke crowned by date, Connie Weed.

The lucky dragon set the theme for the successful Spinsters' Dance.

Dana Jolley smiles in anticipation.

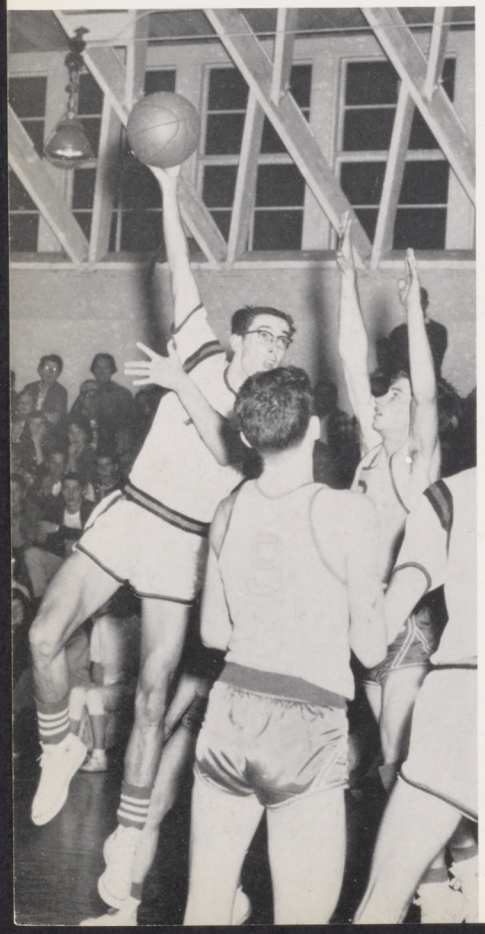
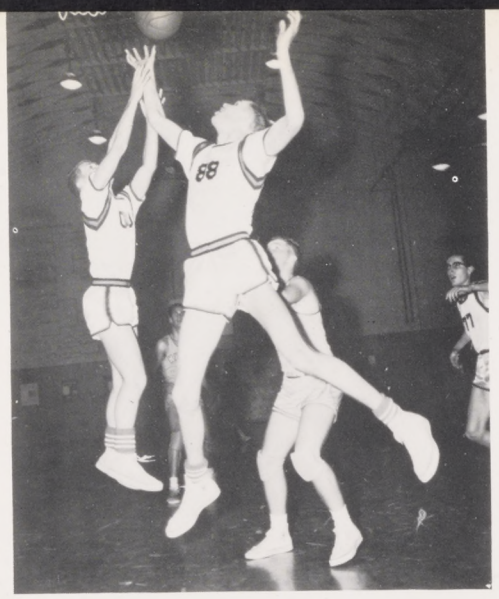
Varsity Basketball

Pelonis hooks for two.



OFF TO A FLYING START in the '58 campaign, the Broncs took their own Block B tourney, adding to their laurels as CIF hoop kings last year. Ably guided by Coach Frank Burk, these championship caliber hoopsters netted second place in the RCL standings.

Block B champs receive congratulations.



Meier, Campbell fight for rebound.

Crum demonstrates some fancy dribbling.

Huckfeldt, Pelonis in action against Beaumont.

Brown hurls pass in mid-air.

Charlie in for a lay-up.

Brown drives down the lane.

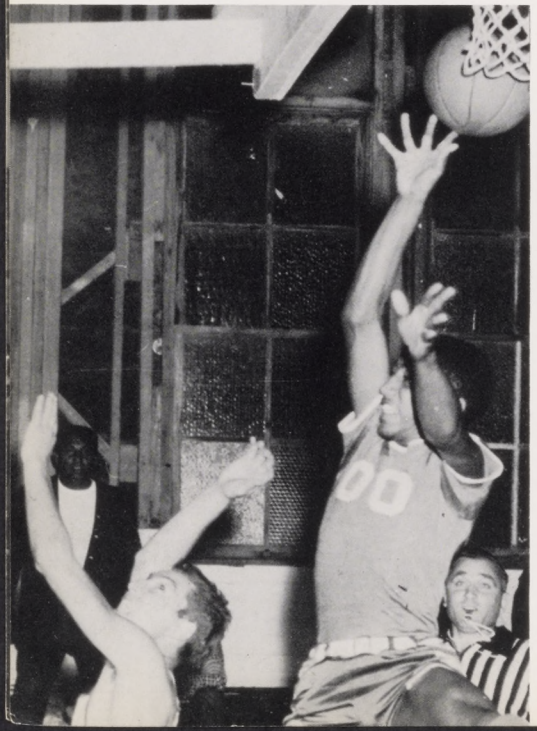
B Basketball

A few games lost by a few points and several costly injuries haunted the Bees through the season. These players had the potential to go all the way but - - - .



L. to R., T. Lyons, E. Miller, G. Kauber, R. Gannon, C. Reed, T. Garner, A. Evans.

C & D

Small size keeps these players out of the RCL standings, but doesn't keep them from supplying all the thrill of good basketball.

L. to R., R. Faulkner, G. Warren, R. Starling, D. Pederson, E. Switzer, D. Butler, R. Hartsfield, L. Gray.

SPRING

"—and then, and then came spring." And time, the rushing river, spilled over into the excitement of the Junior Play and the Talent Show, competing with the many sports activities, as well as that typical time-consuming malady of Spring—

Oh, Snazzy!

This is your kid, the one that faints.

Junior Play

A typical family-situation comedy, loaded with rib-tickling sequences familiar to most everyone in the audience, this play with its big cast, gave lots of juniors a chance to demonstrate the ham in them — most eloquently, of course.

Yea, that will impress him all right.

We're leaving for the Clover Club now.

I've never been so insulted in my life.

And I say Hula, Hawaiian Hula . . .

Baseball

ALTHOUGH the Broncs have had rough going the past few seasons, this year's team was expected to finish high in the first division. Coach Art Linden had ten returning lettermen to bolster his hopes for the coming season.

Senior players Espinoza, Lyons, Crum, Bischke, get tips from Coach Linden.

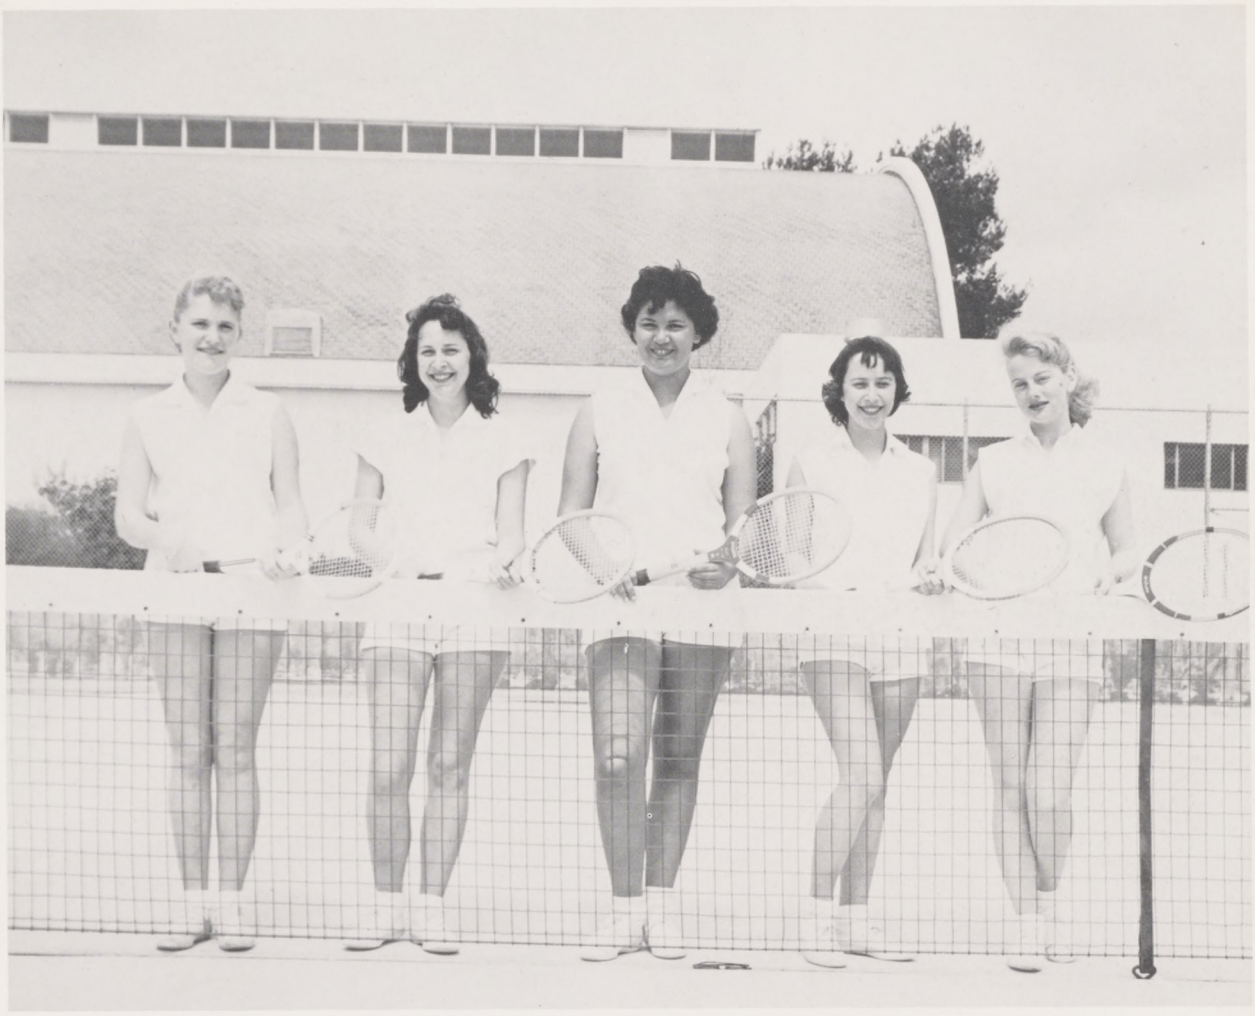
Boys' Tennis

ONCE AGAIN B.U.H.S. can be proud of the tennis team. A bevy of returning lettermen made up a veteran squad that took its share of victories.

Coombs ready for an ace.

Campbell with that sober look of concentration.



L. to R., S. Swope, D. Jolley, A. Aguilar, L. Jolley, and B. J. Peterson.

Girls' Tennis

THE GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM, under the direction of Miss Donnally, went in quest of their third R.C.L. tennis title in four years. The girls practice hard to give Banning a winner.
